

Molly Mac wants to go to space so she can learn the secret of making REAL astronaut toast.

Imagine that you went into space and learned an incredible thing that nobody on Earth knows. What do you think that would be? How could you help people with this incredible information?

Draw a picture of yourself in your own spaceship. Add as much detail as you can.

Share your art and ideas with someone.

Here is the amazing thing I learned in space: _____

Here is how it could help people: _____
