

Simon and his friends want to win the school talent show. They don't seem to have much talent, though.

What is your talent? Think of something that you are very good at. How did you learn to do it? Did someone teach you?

Draw a picture of yourself being awesome. Use as much detail as you can.

Share your art and ideas with someone.

I am very good at: _____

This is how I learned to do it: _____
