

Molly Mac LOVES tacos. She loves them so much she wants to make an automatic taco making machine.

What's your favorite food?

Invent a machine that would make your favorite food for you. What would it look like? How would it work? How big would it be? What would it sound like?

Draw a picture of you using your new invention and write some directions about how to use it.

Share your art and ideas with someone.