

Sammy the hamster has escaped! Make your own comic about it, but try something new. Start in the middle of your story. That's where the action is!

Start in box 3. Show where Sammy might have gone. Use your imagination. Make it ridiculous! Make it scary! Make it fun!

In boxes 1 and 2, show how Sammy escaped. Come up with a brilliant escape plan. Use words and pictures to tell your story.

In boxes 4 and 5, show how Sammy gets back home safely.

Share your comic with someone.
